

FCC Commissioners
The Federal Communications Commission RE: Docket 04-435
445 12th Street, SW
Washington, DC 20554

Dear FCC Commissioners ,

I am writing to voice my concerns about the FCC's proposal to relax the restrictions on the use of cell phones on airplanes in flight.

There is no hard evidence that cell phone use doesn't interfere with navigational instruments. The introduction of cell phone use in the cabin will not only increase tension among passengers, it will compromise flight attendants' ability to maintain order in an emergency. Cell phone use could also enable terrorists to coordinate a plan of action more effectively.

Please leave the current rules in effect.
I agree with the above comments and frankly I am growing weary of cell phone usage everywhere and anywhere. People do not exhibit any courtesies and I don't enjoy listening to their conversations. We have too much noise now. I need peace and quiet somewhere sometime. You feel me?

Sincerely,

Ronnette Davis
